COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY IN WILLIAMSBURG IN VIRGINIA, MAY 12, 1922

No. 27

MANY TO BE HERE FOR JAMESTOWN DAY

Delegations of A. P. V. A. From Norfolk, Newport News, And Richmond to Attend

BECK LECTURES

Hundreds of visitors from the State of Virginia, including delegations from the local chapters of the A. P. V. A. in Richmond, Newport News, and Norfolk, are expected here Saturday, May, 13, when exercises commemorating the three hundred and fifteenth anniversary of the settlement of Jamestown will be held, under the auspices of the College of William and Mary. Holiday will be given the students for the day.

In the morning exercises will be held at the college, and will include, among a number of other events, an address by Hon. James M. Beck, of Washington, D. C., Solicitor-General of the United States, on "The Preservation of Representative Government." The subject of the lecture is an especially interesting one. It will con-

Echo Staff Makes 1923 Nominations

The Colonial Staff Echo at its meeting on Monday night, May 8th, made the following nominations for the staff of next year's annual, which will be voted on tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock:

J. G. Pollard, Jr., Editor-in-Chief.
J. S. Jenkins, Jr., and E. Wellford Brauer, Assistant Editors.

Otey B. East, Business Manager.
J. Swanson Smith, Advertising Manager.

Elizabeth Mercer, Women's Representative.

These nominations by the present staff are subject to ratification by the students in the yearly election and are merely recommendations to the students of those who are deemed best fitted for the respective positions.

Two Assistant Editors will be chosen, and in addition the Editor-in-Chief may appoint associates at his discretion should the need arise.

Track Team In the South Atlantic Meet

The track squad has been practicing faithfully for the past few weeks in anticipation of the South Atlantic Meet at Charlottesville, which started today, and ends tomorrow, and the dual meet with the University of Richmond at Westhampton on May 20.

Dietz and Metcalf represented the college at Washington last week in the American Legion Meet, Dietz winning three points, by coming in sec-

Debating Team Wins and Loses

Are Defeated by N. Y. U., But Win From St. John's—To Get Medals

The William and Mary debating team broke even on its Northern journey last week. The debating team composed of C. J. Duke, Jr., and W. A. Dickinson met New York University at New York and St. John's College at Annapolis. The team lost at New York and won from St. John's. These two contests closed a fifty-fifty season for the team.

The team had previously met Colby College at Williamsburg and Richmond University at Richmond before going on the Northern tour. Colby College defeated our team, but Wil-

Dramatic Club Show a Success

Parts Well Taken And Cleverly Put On—To Go On Road Soon

The Dramatic Club of the College of William and Mary successfully presented "Clarence," one of Booth Tarkington's most entertaining plays, to capacity audiences here Friday and Tuesday nights. Each year for the past three years the club, which is composed of William and Mary students, has produced one play, which, after being given here, is taken on tour to some of the nearby Tidewater cities. This year's play will probably be presented in Newport News, Hampton, Smithfield, and other places. "Clarence" is a farce comedy by

TWO MORE GAMES ON CARD

Following Wednesday's game with Randolph-Macon at Ashland, the Indians have but two more contests scheduled for this year. They must win two of the three to break even for the year, having won nine and lost nine, including the Emory and Henry game.

Saturday, Jamestown Day, the Indians meet Hampden-Sidney here on Cary Field, and entertain the Spiders next Wednesday at the same place. The Tigers have been going good this year, and the Indians will have their hands full to win. Wednesday's game will be a thriller, from all accounts. The local team has defeated Dobson's tossers twice, and the visitors will battle Wednesday to win at least one of the three games. William and Mary will be fighting equally hard for a clean sweep.

It is probable that Thompson will pitch both Saturday's and Wednesday's game. He has defeated Richmond once.

Indians Lose To Emory and Henry

Goodman's Great Pitching Proves Too Much For Indian Tossers

Due to the superior pitching of Goodman for the visitors, William and Mary lost its first home game after the Northern trip to Emory and Henry by the score of 2-0. Thompson, on the mound for the Indians, pitched the best game of the year for the home club, but the team failed to hit behind him. The Indians got three hits, as against the Wasps' five.

The visitors scored in the first

Judge Duke Talks of Colonial Union

Says Wars With Indians And Acts of England Brought Colonies Together

United Efforts in waging wars against the Indians and the French, and the foolish commercial acts of England, were the principal factors in the separation from the Mother Country, and the crystallization of the Union of the States, Judge R. T. W. Duke, of Charlottesville, Va., declared here Saturday in the course of a lecture on "The Issues and Influences Working for the Union."

PAGEANT CAST NOW HARD AT PRACTICE

Students, Faculty And Townspeople Practicing To Portray Historic Scenes In Va. Historical Pageant

COMES MAY 27

Under the direction of the executive committee composed of E. Swem, Dr. W. A. Montgomery, Dr. R. L. Morton, and Dr. Carey Jacob, rehearsals are now being held by the college cast in preparation for William and Mary's part in the historical pageant to be held in Richmond during the last of May.

This episode relating to the college will take place on May 27, as one scene in the general pageant. It is to be a representation meeting of the Board of Visitors in December, 1779, when they dropped the Grammar School and the School of Divinity from the curriculum, and established courses in natural science, constitutional law, and municipal law, thus

Kappa Sigs Stage Delightful Dance

The members of Nu Chapter of Kappa Sigma were the hosts Friday night at a delightful dance given in the Colonial Inn, following the Dramatic Club's play, and continuing until 2 o'clock.

Charming decorations, including curtains, streamers, and pennants, all in the fraternity's colors, red, white, and green, made the ballroom floor of the Inn a charming place to behold.

The music, which was the best heard here in some time, was furnished by the Old Dominion Quintet. Their playing was one of the features of the party.

The guests included the members of the chapter, town and visiting alumni, townspeople, members of the faculty, visiting girls, and men and women students from the college.

Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake, and punch were served.

Indians Win From Spiders On Courts

Winning five straight matches, William and Mary Tennis Team whitewashed our ancient rivals, from Spiderdom. This tournament, held May 6, was viewed with intense interest by the largest crowd that ever witnessed a tennis tournament at William and Mary. Judging by the enthusiasm of the spectators, it seems likely that tennis will soon take its place as a major sport here as it has already at many other colleges.

Wilshin and Pollard were the stars

Newspaper Meeting Was Great Success

By
Southern Intercollegiate News Service
(Sent by University of Richmond Central)

Greenville, S. C.—Southern collegiate journalists, who met at Furman University, Greenville Woman's College cooperating, April 28 and 29, in the second annual convention of the Southern Intercollegiate Newspaper Association, by sound legislation insured the permanency of that infant organization which had its birth at Richmond last spring. P. W. Ackiss and W. A. Dickinson represented the Flat Hat.

In the two day meeting speakers of note were heard on different phases of newspaperism, round table discussions took place, business sessions were held, and the annual banquet with other lighter features were enjoyed.

Emory University, Georgia, won first place in both the Editorial and Journalistic Contest and the convention selected Charles H. Deterly of the same school as president to succeed Chas. F. Leek, of the University of Richmond. Other winners in contests were: Editorial, C. J. Broome, of Mercer University, Georgia, second, and Seth M. Mimming, of Piedmont College, Georgia, third. Journalistic, The Richmond Collegian, University of Richmond, Virginia, second, and The Orange and White, University of Tennessee, third.

The Henry Grady District, comprising States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida, took first place in the membership drive with the admittance of nine new members: Georgia Tech, Mercer, Piedmont and Agnes Scott, of Georgia; Furman, Presbyterian and Greenville Woman's College of South Carolina; and Rollins and Southern, of Florida. Martha Washington, of Virginia; St. John's, of Maryland; Bethany, of West Virginia; and Trinity, of Washington, were admitted in the Woodrow Wilson District. From the Henry Watterson District, Georgetown College, of Kentucky, was taken in. Virginia had the largest delegation with eleven.

A Southern Intercollegiate News Service for member papers was established with "centrals" at Emory University, Georgia, and University of Richmond, Va. Many changes were made to the original constitution, one of the chief being that each State be

THE VISION OF LORD BOTETOURT

He sees the finest manhood
As noble as those of old
With hearts and minds as ready
To guard their country's gold.

Sons of William and Mary,
Be brave, pure, steadfast and true
Be sure ye guard the treasures
The past has garnered for you!

What sees Lord Botetourt coming
As he keeps the watch of the day,
With his wistful eyes on the distance
Through time and the dew-pearled
May?

He sees the past with its glories,
That the College has handed you
An embodied prayer is marble,
He pledges her children true.

What sees Lord Botetourt coming
As he stands in the dawn of the day,
Gazing adown the distance,
Through the wondrous haze of
May?

He sees a troop of maidens
As fair as fair can be
The mothers of fair Virginia
In the time that is to be.

Daughters of William and Mary,
Be pure and noble and true
Ye who have gathered awhile on this campus
The treasures he's kept for you!

What sees Lord Botetourt coming
In the freshness of the day,
Gazing afar in the distance
Of time and the new born May?
—Jane P. Slaughter.

represented on sub-committees under the chairmanship of the three regional vice-presidents. Wm. Ellyson, Jr., Editor of the Richmond Collegian, was the only vice-president chosen and the executive committee will select regional heads for the Henry Grady and Henry Watterson districts later.

The association incorporated in its immediate policy the fostering of the organization of State associations that would operate harmoniously with the larger Southern body.

Atlanta will be the meeting place for the association April, 1923.

Students Organize Rifle Organization

At a recent meeting of all those interested in shooting, the William and Mary Rifle Club was organized under the rules and regulations of the National Rifle Association. This association agrees to supply guns and ammunition provided the local organization secures a range. A committee was appointed to look into this and report at the next meeting.

Officers of the club were elected as follows:

F. L. Anderson.....President
F. F. Wilschin.....Vice-President
E. B. Moffitt.....Secretary
H. D. Wilkins.....Treasurer
J. H. Chalkley.....Executive Officer

The present membership of the club is about twenty. New members will be gladly received, and all those wishing to join should present themselves at the next meeting, to be announced later.

DANCE SATURDAY

The dance held in Jefferson gymnasium Saturday night was, in the opinion of many, the best held this year. Music was furnished by the Old Dominion Quintet and proved to be unusually peppy.

The Y. W. C. A., working in conjunction with the Monogram Club, served suitable refreshments which proved a great addition to the usual routine.

Dancing continued till about 11:30, when the strains of "Home, Sweet Home," announced the close of the festivities, much to the sorrow of those present.

HOSTESSES AT TEA

The freshmen women students were hostesses at a tea Tuesday afternoon in Tyler Hall, given to their junior "sisters." The tea was given under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A.

Dr. Hoke Attends Education Meet

Dr. Hoke represented William and Mary College at the annual meeting of the American Council of Education held in Washington May 5th. At this meeting, reports were received from committees on College Entrance Requirements, Foreign Scholarships and Finance Inquiry. Dr. G. D. Strayer was chairman of a committee reporting on the Relation of Federal Legislation to Public Education. This meeting was attended by representatives of colleges and universities through-out the United States.

Chi Beta Phi Held Convention Here

Chi Beta Phi, scientific fraternity established at William and Mary last year, held its annual convention here last Friday and Saturday, with delegates present from Randolph-Macon, Hampden-Sidney, and this institution. A number of new features were introduced. The next convention will be held in 1924.

The fraternity aims to promote education, and the study of science in particular, among undergraduates. It was founded at Randolph-Macon in 1916. At present there are four active chapters, William and Mary, Randolph-Macon, Emory and Henry and Hampden-Sidney, with a number of prospective chapters.

Dr. Simpson, of Randolph-Macon, delivered an address in chapel Saturday night under the auspices of Chi Beta Phi, on "The Relation of Mathematics to Science."

MISS WILLIAMS SPEAKS

Miss Adele Williams, who has been painting the portrait of Dr. J. Lesslie Hall, addressed the literary society named after the beloved professor Saturday night on Art.

Team Returns From The Northern Trip

Lost Last Three Games To N. Y. U., C. C. of N. Y. and Naval Academy

The Indians slipped into Williamsburg early Thursday morning from their Northern trip. They completed the nine game schedule with three more defeats by New York University, City College of New York, and Navy. The first two games were lost in the ninth inning, when the local tossers commanded a two run lead. The City College game had a spectacular ending, as Axtel, pitching for the New Yorkers, hit a home run, with two men on base, two down, and after two strikes had been called on him, winning his own game in a story book fashion.

The Navy game was a slugfest. The Indians tallied in the first on Lowe's home run. Navy got four runs, through a walk, sacrifice, another base on balls, a double by Barchet, a bad throw by Thompson to first, a balk, and another single. William and Mary added two more in the second, on F. Chandler's single, and White's four bagger. William and Mary went into the lead in the fourth. J. Chandler and F. Chandler singled, White laid down a bunt, but failed to advance a runner, as J. Chandler was thrown out at third. Thompson knocked out a Texas Leaguer, filling the bases. Hicks got his second home run in as many games, scoring four runs. Navy came back with a vengeance in the last of the fourth. Hogan led off with a single, and was sacrificed to second. Harris was safe on Lowe's error. Rawling's was safe on a pop fly which the infield failed to cover; Lowe made his second error of the inning, and Hogan scored. Humphreys walked, forcing a run. Barrett singled, scoring Rawlings. Baker drove out a long single which scored Mills and Humphreys. Thompson finished the inning by fanning Hederman and Hogan.

"Curt" Thompson was sick when he started the game, and deserves much credit for the plucky fight he staged in battling against odds.

Score by innings of the last three games, with batteries, follows:

W. & M. ....007 301 001—12 19 3
N. Y. U. ....000 411 223—13 11 4

Batteries: Thompson and Chalkley; Hirschfield, Bacile, and Toorock.

W. & M. ....004 020 102— 9 14 4
C. C. of N. Y. ....020 201 203—10 10 2

Batteries: Stephens and Chalkley; Axtel and Rosonwitz.

W. & M. ....120 400— 7 8 4
Navy ....400 51x—10 10 1

Batteries: Thompson and Chandler; Sparling, Kelly, and Hogan.

Guide: This tower goes back to William the Conqueror."

Tourist: "Why, what's the matter with it; isn't it satisfactory?"

Theta Deltas Win Baseball Title

Theta Delta Chi captured the interfraternity by defeating Pi Kappa Alphas, 7-5, on Cary Field last Wednesday. A silver cup will be awarded the victors. Inability to hit in pinches and costly errors by Robinson and Schenk, caused the downfall of the boys from Peacock Hill.

Consistent hitting and fielding kept the Thetas in the lead until the sixth inning. This inning, the Pi K. A.s opened up their heavy artillery and knotted the score. It was this way: Bennett was safe on a fielder's choice. Peters muffed Deitz's long fly and Bennett scored. Schenk drew a pass and scored on Hastings's single. Hastings counted a moment later on an infield out. The score stood 5 all. At this point Reese tightened and allowed no further scoring.

The Thetas put the game on ice in the seventh inning when "Piggy" Schenk misjudged an easy fly from Tommy Evans' bat and allowed Harper to score. Not satisfied with a single score margin, the Thetas scored again on Carter Robinson's miscue of Jordan's grounder. This ended the scoring for the game. The twinkling lights for the winners were: Reese, Harper and Evans. Whitten, Hastings and John Todd starred for the losers.

for William and Mary. Zeigler played a steady game for the Spiders. The Indians' Tennis Team has not suffered a defeat this season. The locals will play the Yellow Jackets in Ashland on the 15th.

The score:

Singles: Wilshin vs. Zeigler, 6-2, 6-0. Pollard vs. McDaniel, 6-1, 6-1. Cline vs. Tredway, 8-6, 6-3.

Doubles: Wilshin and Pollard vs. Zeigler and McDaniel, 6-4, 6-2. Johnson and Burch vs. Tredway and Bell, 6-2, 4-6, 6-4.

ond in the 220 low hurdles. Both men placed in the heats.

Last year the Spiders won the dual meet through sheer force of numbers, William and Mary annexing eight of fourteen first places. This year the athletic authorities will take enough men to the capital to try for scores in the second and third places. V. M. I. defeated Richmond 112 to 14, and won from William and Mary, 82-44. Thus comparative scores seem to give the Indians a slight advantage.

"Papooses" Win From Navy Yard Tossers

Hitting of Burke Features Game For the Little Indians

The William and Mary Freshmen defeated the Apprentice Boys of the Norfolk Navy Yard here Thursday in a hard fought game by the score of 6 to 5. The game was featured by heavy slugging. Thompson, of the "Papooses," got a home run, as did Archer and Beck of the Navy Yard Apprentices; Westbrook contributed a triple. The game was one of the best that has been played on Cary Field this season. Both teams put up an excellent brand of ball, but their defense was ragged in spots.

The "Papooses" scored in the first inning when Thompson laced out a home run to deep right field. Two

HELP THE CITY

The students should aid the town authorities in their endeavor to keep the parkways along Duke of Gloucester Street from being marred by pathways running in all directions, much to the detriment of the street's beauty.

By following the paths as marked out by the city officials, the students can do the city a distinct service, and incidentally, keep "without the law." The appearance of the college will also be added to if Duke of Gloucester is made a beautiful thoroughfare.

OUR DIAMOND ETIQUETTE

The Indians have two more games at home, and it is the duty of the students to back them heartily in these two games. Saturday the team meets Hampden-Sidney, and next Wednesday the Spiders will oppose the Indians on Cary Field in a game that will close the baseball season for both nines.

Nothing helps the team so much as backing by the student body, not only by yells and similar displays of encouragement, but by its action. Everywhere the team played on the Northern trip it was noticed that the spectators at the games sat, not all over the field, but in the stands built for that purpose. There were no spectators sitting on the visiting team's and the home team's benches, none lined up behind home plate, or along the foul lines. William and Mary should accord such courtesies to visiting teams, but it is a hard matter for them to keep the students off the field, and in the stand. It is the individual duty of each student, and members of the faculty, to view the games from the stand, in order that this obligation be rigidly adhered to.

Back the team tomorrow and Saturday, by working with the cheer leaders, and keeping in the stand!

THANKS TO THE STAFF

We desire to publicly express our thanks to the members of the Flat Hat staff and others who published two highly creditable issues of the weekly during our absence from college with the baseball team. Both issues augur well for the success and standard of next year's paper.

HEAR DR. BECK

Tomorrow the last of the Marshall-Wythe Lectures will be delivered here by one of the most outstanding legal authorities in the country. The President has granted holiday for the day, in order that the students may aid in the guiding of visitors who will be here for the Jamestown celebration, and to hear the Hon. James M. Beck lecture on the "Preservation of Representative Government."

The attendance at these lectures has been far below what it should be. The students have failed to back the administration in the attempt to make better students by bringing to them distinguished lecturers to speak on interesting and highly instructive subjects.

We hope that the attendance tomorrow will be a representative one; that all those students who can, will attend. Visitors in large numbers will be here, and surely the impression on them will be a poor one if only a few students hear the address. Aside from that is that fact that every student who wilfully cuts the lecture is doing himself and those who sent him to college a distinct injustice.

Come out tomorrow.

MR. GWATHMEY HOST TO DRAMATIC CLUB

Following Tuesday night's presentation of "Clarence," Prof. E. M. Gwathmey, who directed the show, entertained the members of the cast, and other invited guests, at an informal buffet dinner in his home on Peacock Hill.

Tempting refreshments, consisting of chicken salad, sandwiches, and punch, were served.

DISCUSS CHINA

China was the topic for a very interesting meeting of the Y. W. C. A. held last Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. Laura Anderson, in Chinese costumes, told of her experiences in China with some missionaries. This was followed by a talk on the present political situation there by Prof. Geo. Baskerville Zehmer.

more were gathered in the second; Burke singled, went to third on Westbrook's hit, and both scored when Redd muffed Smith's fly.

The Apprentices counted twice in the fifth. Hesketh was hit by a pitched ball, Beck singled, and Gumm walked, filling the bases. Hesketh and Beck scored on Williams' single. The boys from the Navy Yard forged ahead in the sixth. Tanner got a one-base blow and scored when Archer's drive got by Prilliman for a home run. Beck's single also got away from Prilliman and rolled to the right field fence for another home run.

The "Papooses" put the game on ice in the eighth. Parsons was safe when Hesketh fumbled his grounder. Burke singled to center. Parsons and Burke both counted on Westbrook's triple. Westbrook scored a moment later on a passed ball by Broughton.

Tanner, for the Apprentices, and Burke, for the "Papooses," led in the hitting, both getting three hits out of four trips to the plate.

"HOME, SWEET HOME"

"Anytime, Anyday, Anywhere."
"Dear Old Pal":

As I was "Drifting" "In a Boat,"
"All by Myself," "Grieving for You" and "Wondering" "Do You Ever
Thing of Me," "I Never Realized" "I Used to Love You, But It's All Over
Now," as "Somebody's Done Me
Wrong." That little "Vamp," such a "Sweet Woman," has taken "My Man" I found "In the Devil's Garden."

"Bright Eyes," "Who'll Be the Next
One to Cry Over You," and what little "Alice Blue Gown" will say "Your Eyes Have Told Me So?"

It is now time to lay my "Sleepy
Head" on "My Mammy's" knee.

"Dearies," I realize "A Good Man
Is Hard to Find," so won't you "Give Me All Your Love," as I am "Lonesome, That's All?"

"Nobody's Baby."

There's Something in That

I am unsophisticated,
Nothing bores me.

I have even enjoyed one or two of

Harold Bell Wright's stories

And I laugh over prohibition jokes.

I never worry about the down-trodden masses;

And yet I'm always broke.

I read Main Street and felt sorry for the author:

He must be a very unhappy man—

fearfully sophisticated, you know.

I thrill all over when I hear the Star-Spangled Banner played—

And then I always go and enlist

(twice I've done it just that way).

A good close ball game gets me every time.

I guess it's because I'm unsophisticated—

Nothing bores me.

But, for all that, I'm happy!

RICHMONDERS VISIT HERE LAST SATURDAY

A large number of Richmonders visited William and Mary College, the city, and the surrounding points of historical interest nearby last Saturday, coming here on an excursion arranged under the auspices of the Richmond Extension Division of William and Mary, and the Farmville
State Normal Alumnae Association.
Luncheon was served the visitors at the college in the afternoon.

Miss Sadie B. Armstrong, assistant principal of the Mathew Maury
School, and Dr. H. H. Gibbs, director of the Richmond extension division of the college, constituted the committee in charge of the excursion.

The party left in the afternoon for the capital city.

GIVE TEA

The freshman girls gave a tea to their junior sisters Thursday afternoon in the living room of Tyler Hall, under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A.

GYM EXHIBITION

The exhibition given by the girls of the freshman gym class last Saturday afternoon was a great success, owing to the efforts of Miss Barksdale and the participants. A mock circus will take place sometime this month.

The Complete Guide

These are the days of Continental tourists and the attendant guides.

In Rouen lately a party of simple
English were taken in hand by a Maltese who spoke half a dozen languages with equal fluency and recklessness.
He led them into the beautiful forecourt of the Courts of Justice and vociferated: "'Ere you 'ave, ladies and gentlemen, all sorts of architectures—all sorts. You don't know nothing about it and nor don't I. so come on." And on they went.

—London Morning Post.

Two little worms were digging away. They were digging in dead earnest. Poor Ernest!

FUTURE OF RADIO

By Dr. C. P. Steinmetz
Chief Consulting Engineer
General Electric Company

Although radio telephony is never likely to replace ordinary telephoning between two individuals, it is possible that radio transmission will be employed in the sending of toll messages from city to city. Future developments in radio may bring about some interesting discoveries, among them the establishment of the fact that radio waves pass through the earth as well as through the air.

Now that we have radio in such a high state of development, no place need ever be out of communication with the rest of the world. In time of disaster, when other means of communication are cut off, when wires are destroyed, the radio can still be used to send messages to other places. Expeditions, traveling in distant lands, in places where no wires have ever been stretched, can transmit messages by radio. Communication by radio at sea is, of course, one of the great possibilities, as we all know.

We cannot expect that radio will replace ordinary telephone communication between individuals. It is not possible to direct radio messages so absolutely. Radio is too general, it goes out over a large area, and others—not everybody, but others—could hear the message as well as the person for whom it was intended.

But radio might be used in sending toll messages. A telephone subscriber might talk by wire with a radio central station in his city, and the message which he wanted to send to a far distant place might then be put on the wireless from that station, to be received by a similar radio central in the other city, and then transmitted by telephone to the person addressed.

It is by broadcasting that radio will perform the most service to the most people. Speakers can address the nation at large, as was done with the President's inaugural address; lecturers can lecture to larger audiences; college professors can be heard by many who might not be able to take regular college courses, or who, while attending the classes of some professors, would lose the lecturer of others elsewhere whom they might desire to hear—so that people might receive some aspects of college training without leaving their homes; ministers might preach to many who are not present at church; public information might be sent out, as is already being done.

Radio is a very large subject, a big thing, so that only those who have studied it thoroughly can safely discuss what may come of it in future years. Obviously we are far from having reached its limits of development.

Hayden To Speak

Dr. H. E. Hayden, Jr., of the Department of Biology of the University of Richmond, will speak here Monday night before the Clayton-Grimes Biological Club, in the Biology Room, at 7:30.

frame, when Caldwell singled to left field, his hit going for a home run when the ball was lost in the honey-suckle. Their final tally came in the third, when Graham reached first on Cooke's error, was sacrificed to second, and scored on Russell's single.

William and Mary failed to reach first until the sixth, when Chalkley walked, and was thrown out stealing. In the seventh Lowe walked, and took second on Cobb's infield hit. J. Chandler ended the inning when he rolled a grounder to short. The Indians again threatened to break the game up in the eighth. Chalkley got to first on an error, with two gone; Thompson singled to left field; Hicks beat out an infield hit. Cooke failed to score them, however, being thrown out, pitcher to first, on a close decision.

one of America's most widely known authors. It proved an admirable carriage for this year's cast, as the various parts were all well taken. Prof. Edward M. Gwathmey, of the Department of English at the college, who directed the performance, is due much credit for the success of the play. Dr. Jacob helped a great deal in putting the finishing touches on the members of the cast.

While all the parts were well taken and splendidly portrayed, Miss Alice Clay, as "Cora Wheeler," C. P. Pollard, as "Bobby Wheeler," J. C. Phillips, as "Clarence," and W. E. Bull, as "Mr. Wheeler," played their difficult parts in an unusually clever manner.

The cast this year is as follows: Helen Lannigan, as "Mrs. Martyn," W. E. Bull, as "Mr. Wheeler," Josephine Benschoten, as "Mrs. Wheeler," C. P. Pollard, as "Bobby Wheeler,"

Alice Clay, as "Cora Wheeler," Lucile Jackson, as "Violet Pinney," J. C. Phillips, as "Clarence," Margaret Lawless, as "Della," J. G. Pollard, Jr., as "Dinwiddie," and J. S. Jenkins, as "Hubert Stem." C. J. Duke, Jr., is President of the Dramatic Club, and J. W. Henderson, Business Manager.

JUDGE DUKE TALKS OF COLONIAL UNION

The speaker said that the various colonies were widely divergent, in religion, government, method of living, and laboring conditions. At the outset the diversified characters of the several colonies threatened to keep away any possibility of a union. Finally, however, massacres by the Indians, aided by the French, led to the formation of unions "for defense."

Later, the ruling merchant class in England revived oppressive acts against the commerce of the colonies, notably the various Navigation Acts, putting Massachusetts under military rule, and taking away the charter of that colony, sending accused persons to England for trial. This tyrannical legislation, Mr. Duke said, crystallized every element of union in the colonies.

DEBATING TEAM WINS AND LOSES

William and Mary proved too much for the Richmond debaters.

The debating schedule for this year was the most extensive one ever programmed by the college. The Debate Council, rejoicing over this year's season, is arranging an even larger schedule for the coming year. This branch of college activity is experiencing a revival.

The debaters will be awarded medals given by the two men's literary societies for their success in two contests out of four.

clude the Marshall-Wythe series of constitutional lectures, and will be held near the spot where representative government in America was born, at Jamestown, in 1619.

Students of the college, six hundred and eighty strong, will act as guides to the many visitors, and show them the numerous places of historic interest in and around the City of Williamsburg, including the oldest college in the South, Bruton Parish church, foundations of the Old Capitol, the homes of John Blair, Peyton Randolph, and George Wythe, the Colonial Governors' Palace, and the Powder Horn.

The afternoon program for Jamestown Day includes a pilgrimage to the scene of the first permanent English speaking colony in the New World, where suitable exercises will be held. The visitors will be shown the old church, the fort, and the other historic landmarks on the island.

In the afternoon William and Mary will meet the Hampden-Sidney baseball team on Cary Field.

Pictures at the Palace Next Week

SHOWS AT 4, 7, 8:30 P. M.

MONDAY

Suppose you found a handsome young returned soldier, heir to millions, wasting away under fake treatment of a rascally doctor for ailments which are imaginary? And suppose you were the romance dispenser from the magazine columns of a great daily newspaper, sent out by the editor to obtain a new angle on the subject of romance; wouldn't you feel like experimenting on him in an effort to bring back his pep? Well, that is the situation as presented by Mary Miles Minter in "The Heart Specialist," which is coming to the Palace Theatre next Monday. It is a rattling good drama, packed with thrills.

TUESDAY

Richard Dix, one of the screen's most talented actors, comes to the Palace Tuesday in a stirring drama, "All's Fair In Love." He is supported by an admirable cast.

WEDNESDAY

"The Sting of the Lash," one of Pauline Frederick's greatest photoplays, will be shown at the Palace on Wednesday. Critics have pronounced Miss Frederick's work in this screen play to be included in the best she has ever done. Good photography, splendid settings, and an able cast, besides the starring of Miss Frederick, make the picture a headliner.

THURSDAY

What is heralded as one of the biggest photoplay attractions of the year will be seen at the Palace Theatre next Thursday when "A Man's Home," a new Selznick Special, will be shown.

The story of "A Man's Home" was written by Anna Steese Richardson and Edmund Breese, the first a prominent writer of magazine articles and lecturer before women's clubs, and the latter a well-known actor of both stage and screen. Ralph Ince directed the picture and the cast includes, among others, Harry T. Morey, Kathlyn Williams, Faire Binney, Matt Moore, Roland Bottomley, Grace Valentine and Margaret Sedden.

The story of "A Man's Home" is declared to be a reflection of home life in America. The axiom in English law is that "a man's home is his castle and he has a right to defend it," while not the basis of the plot, has a bearing on the progress of the details. The Selznick organization declares that the appeal of the picture is to the American's love of home.

FRIDAY

"A Tale of Two Worlds," which will be shown at the Palace Theatre Friday, reveals much for the photoplay goer to be thankful for. In the first place, it has a story, a really gripping story of love and intrigue, in which a young American is given the opportunity of his life to exercise his intelligence and his physical courage. The spur for all his efforts is an American girl who has been brought to San Francisco's Chinatown after her parents were killed in the Boxer uprising of 1899. This exciting tale is by Gouverneur Morris, one of the Eminent Authors whose productions are being made at the Goldwyn Studios. It was directed by Frank Lloyd.

SATURDAY

"Conceit" is the title of the latest Selznick Special to be shown at the Palace Theatre next Saturday, and in it is to be found a construction of plot and a method of presentation that is a marked departure from the conventional.

The action centers around a man who, up to a certain period in his life, has been enabled, by the power of money, to acquire anything he desired. He is placed in a position where his wealth means nothing and he is forced to revert to the primitive. The change works a great transformation in his character and he emerges a new man, shorn of all petty selfishness and weakness. Michael J. Phillips wrote the story under its original title, "The Toll of the Wilderness," which has been enjoyed by thousands of magazine readers.

Set amid surroundings of great beauty and photographed in one of Nature's beauty spots, Lake Louise and Banff, Canada, "Conceit" has everything that goes to make a photoplay success.
